

Toolkit 1 - I can read

Word list

Because reading should be fun

If your child isn't starting from scratch with this toolkit and has already received some reading instruction, you may be wondering which book to start with. This word list gives you all the guidance you need. Simply ask the child to read the words by starting at the top and working through the list of words in each book. When the child makes their third mistake in the word list, look at which book they've reached and start reading at that book. It may help to use a piece of paper to uncover one word at a time.
